Dear guest,

We are sorry that our site is not translated in English yet. We only just started and translating and , even more so, adapting the site is a bit expensive. As is using the international platforms for auctions.

Please try to look into our catalogue. It is found in the menu via “catalogi” and then “toonzaalcatalogus”.

You can search easily by using the “categorien” button or use search words.

The catalogue shows all our stock. We put it online, and in our showroom, as soon as it gets in. You can always make a maximum bid. We take our next live auction products from this catalogue and the biddings come along. The numbers under 1000 are usually in the next live auction.

If you need any help or want a translation of the Dutch text, please do not hesitate and mail us. We are happy to oblige. Please mail to: info@ducoavisveilingen.nl
